Project Description

The goal of this project would be to survey the data available in the unclassified realm and explore creative ways of making it widely accessible. It would involve open-source research as well as phone interviews of staff at Embassy Kuwait as well as other Foreign Service posts in the region.

Desired Skills Interests

Additional Information

An individual with good written composition skills, combined with some experience in data base and graphic arts software, could do very well. Interest in the history, politics, and demography of the Gulf would be important.
